IMPORTANT CHANGE TO RED CARD DETENTIONS

February 9th 2015

Dear Parents

I am writing to let you know that after the half term holiday (week beginning Monday, February 23rd 2015) students that fail to attend a Red Card Detention will receive a further sanction by being detained at lunch time the next day by a member of the Leadership Team.

We will continue to let you know about your child's Red Card detention by telephone or text. You should also receive the Red Card via your child which will inform you of the day / date of the detention. Lunch time detentions will be a further sanction for students that do not attend their original Red Card detention. Students will also be expected to attend a Red Card detention on the first given opportunity to make up for their original missed Red Card detention.

Students will be given a packed lunch if they normally purchase their food from the Canteen.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all parents who have worked with colleagues here at Joseph Leckie Academy to ensure that students' punctuality, smart appearance and having the correct equipment for lessons is checked each day prior to leaving home. As a result these very important areas have all improved benefiting both the overall behaviour and performance throughout the Academy.

Yours sincerely
